A 10-MINUTE DECISION CHECK

IS THIS MINE?

You did everything right.

So why does this life not feel like yours?

A small somatic tool for the moment you cannot hear what you want over all the shoulds.

ONE DECISION. ONE HONEST NEXT MOVE.

STEP ONE

FIND THE LIVE QUESTION.

Pick one decision that is already taking up space in your head. A real one. No need to unpack your whole childhood before lunch.

THE QUESTION I KEEP GOING IN CIRCLES ABOUT IS...

WHAT I FEEL I SHOULD DO IS...

IF NO ONE NEEDED TO APPROVE, I MIGHT WANT TO...

Keep it ordinary. Ordinary is where the good stuff hides.

An invitation, a conversation, a job move, a boundary, a plan you keep delaying. One question is enough for today.

STEP TWO

LET YOUR BODY HAVE A WORD IN IT.

You are not asking your body to solve your entire life. You are giving it a chance to respond before your brain writes a very convincing essay about why you should ignore yourself.

7:58 GUIDED AUDIO

Body Scan Meditation

by Clara Louis on Insight Timer. Sit or lie down. No perfect meditating required.

LISTEN TO THE BODY SCAN ->

AFTER THE AUDIO, I NOTICE...

More open, heavier, calmer, tight, blank, restless, relieved, something else? You do not have to make it mean anything yet.

Data, not a verdict. We love a low-pressure clue.

STEP THREE

PICK YOUR NEXT MOVE.

Choose the sentence that matches what came up. You can borrow it exactly, make it less polished, or write your own. No PowerPoint presentation required.

NO

I need to decline.

"Thanks for asking. I am not available for that right now."

NOT YET

I need more time.

"I do not know yet. I will come back to you by [when]."

YES, BUT DIFFERENTLY

I need a change in the plan.

"I am up for it, and I need [support / time / a different plan] for it to work."

I WANT MORE

I am ready to ask.

"I would like [specific thing]. Can we talk about how that could look?"

A small sentence can be a very big plot twist.

WHEN YOU WANT MORE SUPPORT

WHAT DO YOU NEED NEXT?

This was a first pause. If you want more clarity, a rhythm that helps you stay connected, or support to make a bigger change, choose the door that matches your actual need.
